BOOSTERS FORESEE COMING OF S. A. L.

Hook Up Railroad Building
With Highway and Improved Draining

"When the Seaboard builds in," a phrase much in use in the upper Everglades a year ago, is proving in conversations that the development of the country as a whole is being made rapidly to the Seaboard Air Lines, a line of which crosses St. Lucie canals at Indiantown, 16 miles from Canal Point, and it has supplied the former general usage of expression. "If we get by without a storm."

We got by without a storm, and the message of a flake being out of place in the new railroad construction fixed that construction of the large sugar mill in the United States will start this winter, popular interest is in what may be the next step. The Seaboard Air Lines has a railroad track between Indiantown and Canal Point as soon as the Southern Sugar Company's new mill is started, it will be taken as a certainty, hence the popularity of the phrase, "When the Seaboard builds in."

The conviction that a branch of the Seaboard will be extended to Canal Point and to Pahokee, where Kieff is so fixed that several firms are delaying the erection of warehouses and buildings until the idea that they will get into the new railroad, a seed house and a canning company being among the most as well as a lumber company and a fruit cannery.

The late President Warfield of the Seaboard visited Canal Point several times in the summer preceding his death, and selected a branch of his road would be built to Canal Point as soon as a new and larger sugar mill was started although his death and the flood of 1928 tends to delay the program, the project has not been abandoned.

Between Canal Point and the Seaboard at Indiantown the distance is but 16 miles. In local analysis, this is compared to the 16 miles of construction that Warfield had in mind.

The "old-timers," the residents who have been on the lake since the days of the Seminoles, make the south end of the lake as "South Bay," by which name it is designated on early maps, while the north end is called "Glades." At the south point of the lake, it is a bay, they say, and proper to separate by a dike.

The bay is a "pocket" into which the lake flows by storm, and when the lake overflows, the water spills over the lower Mississippi river. A section of the upper Mississippi, however, is a private enterprise, the navigable tributaries of the lake would be designed to administer the development of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence river.

President Hoover said he and Secretary Good planned the immediate construction of a bridge across the lake, connecting the old military machine "Divide and conquer," applying the maxim to water, to split its force and render it less effective.

Agency For Auto License

A motor vehicle license tag agency is to be established at Pahokee for the benefit of the people of the Everglades section of Palm Beach county, to relieve them of the inconvenience of having to go 45 miles to the county seat.

The agency has been authorized by Hon. Walter S. McLean of Tallahassee, who was appointed acting motor vehicle commissioner by Governor Carlton a few months ago.

Information that the Everglades section of Palm Beach county would get a license tag agency came in a letter from Mr. McLean to Howard Sharp:

Tallahassee, Sept. 11.
Howard Sharp,
Canal Point, Fla.
Dear Mr. Sharp:

I am giving you your permission to open a tag agency at Pahokee as per your request of Sept. 8 and am going to appoint Mr. W. P. Weller as the agent there, upon your recommendation.

At present I can give you no definite time when this will be done.

With kind personal regards,
Your friend,
W. S. McLean,
Acting Commissioner.

McLean is a representative in the legislature from Leon county and always voted for measures that benefited the Everglades and it was in the legislature that he formed a close friendship developed between him and Mr. Sharp, who is one of the representatives from Palm Beach county,

ALONG THE RIDGE

Bananas in section 4 are growing as they grow along the ridge banks. The palms are the palms at the Huskey place. It needs only the Sharon papayas to make things look natural to the eye.

Several houses along the ridge have been painted but there is still a market for hundreds of gallons of linseed oil and paint for houses at the front lake.

The effort to get section 6 re-timed from the infinite limits of Pahokee is likely to again be taken.

On the Belvoir Point road three neighbors with whom we have many nice laves and trees are connected the lawns in one patch of grass which is of splendid appearance.

Charlie Stucky having set an example, Charlie Stucky is simplifying it and cleaning up the section 5 plot.

Lumber Arrives For Field Camp Houses

Four car loads of lumber have been delivered for the erection of forty three-room houses in the sugar company's camp in section 22, east of Pahokee, where cane cutters and other field hands will be housed.

There was delay in the delivery of the lumber, else the houses would have been completed by this time.

Palm trees are being removed from the space where the bunkhouse is to be erected adjacent to the sugar company's camp village. The new bunkhouse will accommodate fifty white men.

TIFIN GETS BAMBOO

Rev. F. E. Tiffin has procured from Belle Glade some cuttings of bamboo which he will set out at the Hull place which he traded for recently.

OUR FUTURE POLICY ON GASOLINE AND OIL SALES

COMMENCING SUNDAY, SEPT. 15, 1929.

In the past we have tried to charge you with gas and oil on your regular account, our doing; so we put as little right for ready cash and the only way out of it is to put our filling station on a strictly cash basis.

We regret having to make such a move, but we believe that to do otherwise would be a loss to us if we continued charging gasoline and oil.

Please remember that there will be no one on our books for the above mentioned, as we have no pet customers, and that we will try to give you the best of service at all times.

We think that you will be satisfied to trade with us on a cash basis for it is far better for every one involved.

Thanking you for your business with us in the past and trusting that you will continue to favor us with your valued patronage, we are.

You're very truly,
